

Hustings Questions

General Election 2017

Do you commit to preserving the Human Rights Act and the protection of minority rights including rights to religious slaughter, circumcision and wearing of religious dress or symbols?

Do you commit to tackling religious discrimination in the workplace and addressing the low level of economic activity among Muslims through targeted interventions at stages of recruitment, retention and promotion?

Do you commit to prioritising religious education in the national curriculum to prepare young people for life in a religiously plural society?

Do you commit to supporting faith school provisions in the state sector for Muslim pupils and parents?

Do you commit to media reform and the full implementation of the Royal Charter on a Leveson compliant press regulator?

Do you commit to repealing the current statutory Prevent duty and replacing this with a more effective, evidence based and non-discriminatory counter-terrorism strategy by engaging with Muslim communities?

Do you commit to curbing the encroachment of counter-terrorism policies on civil liberties by reviewing all counter-terrorism legislation enacted since 2000?

Do you commit to tackling the high number of Muslim prisoners through schemes to facilitate rehabilitation, cut re-offending and developing pathways for social inclusion?

Do you commit to reviewing the 2006 Racial and Religious Hatred Act as advised by the Law Commission's "Hate crime: the case for extending the existing offences" report and introducing legislation to extend legal protection to cover religion, homophobia and disability hate crime?

Do you commit to providing shari'ah compliant student loans for British Muslim students and supporting the growth of the shari'ah compliant financial services industry?

mend